

Vilnius, Lithuania has built a ‘portal’ to Lublin in Poland to help keep people connected.

The city has installed a circular “door” for the portal near its train station that connects to a portal in Lublin, Poland, about 375 miles away. The portals both have large screens and cameras that broadcast live images between the two cities— a kind of digital bridge, according to its creators - meant to encourage people to “rethink the meaning of unity.”

There are plans to “connect” more cities.

Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.
