

A Rainbow Bridge

At the start of a New Year this picture of a rainbow reminds me of God's promises to us all which are true and everlasting.

To me it is an elegant structure that only He could have made – so perfect and so elegant.

I found this picture on the web which to me speaks volumes. It says to me that as I journey on through life Father God is always there to guide, protect and encourage – even though I don't always take notice. But I know He is faithful and will forgive my constant wanderings off-track and when I return to Him and ask forgiveness He is faithful to forgive.
